

4:47am
Why do we waste so much time analyzing problem claims?

11:31pm
Why can't we help our physicians work more efficiently?

2:35am
How can we be sure our diabetic patients are getting the necessary services
to keep them stable?

5:16am
Why does Chinese food always keep me up at night?

Its time to finally put those nagging questions to rest with our payor solutions.
[Sorry, we can't do anything about the indigestion.]

Now that GMIS, AMISYS and HPR are part of the McKessonHBOC team, we've become the most complete source for health plan and medical management solutions. With a full line of applications that can run your business with maximum efficiency and get you the information you need to do your job more effectively. What's more, our consulting services are always available to help you along the way. So you'll not only get better performance from your business. You just might get a better night's sleep, too. For more information on our software and services, give us a call at 1-800-933-4647.

Monday – Are too many PCPs sending patients to specialists?

Tuesday – Can't we turn around claims faster so customer service stops complaining?

Thursday –
Why am I so hungry?

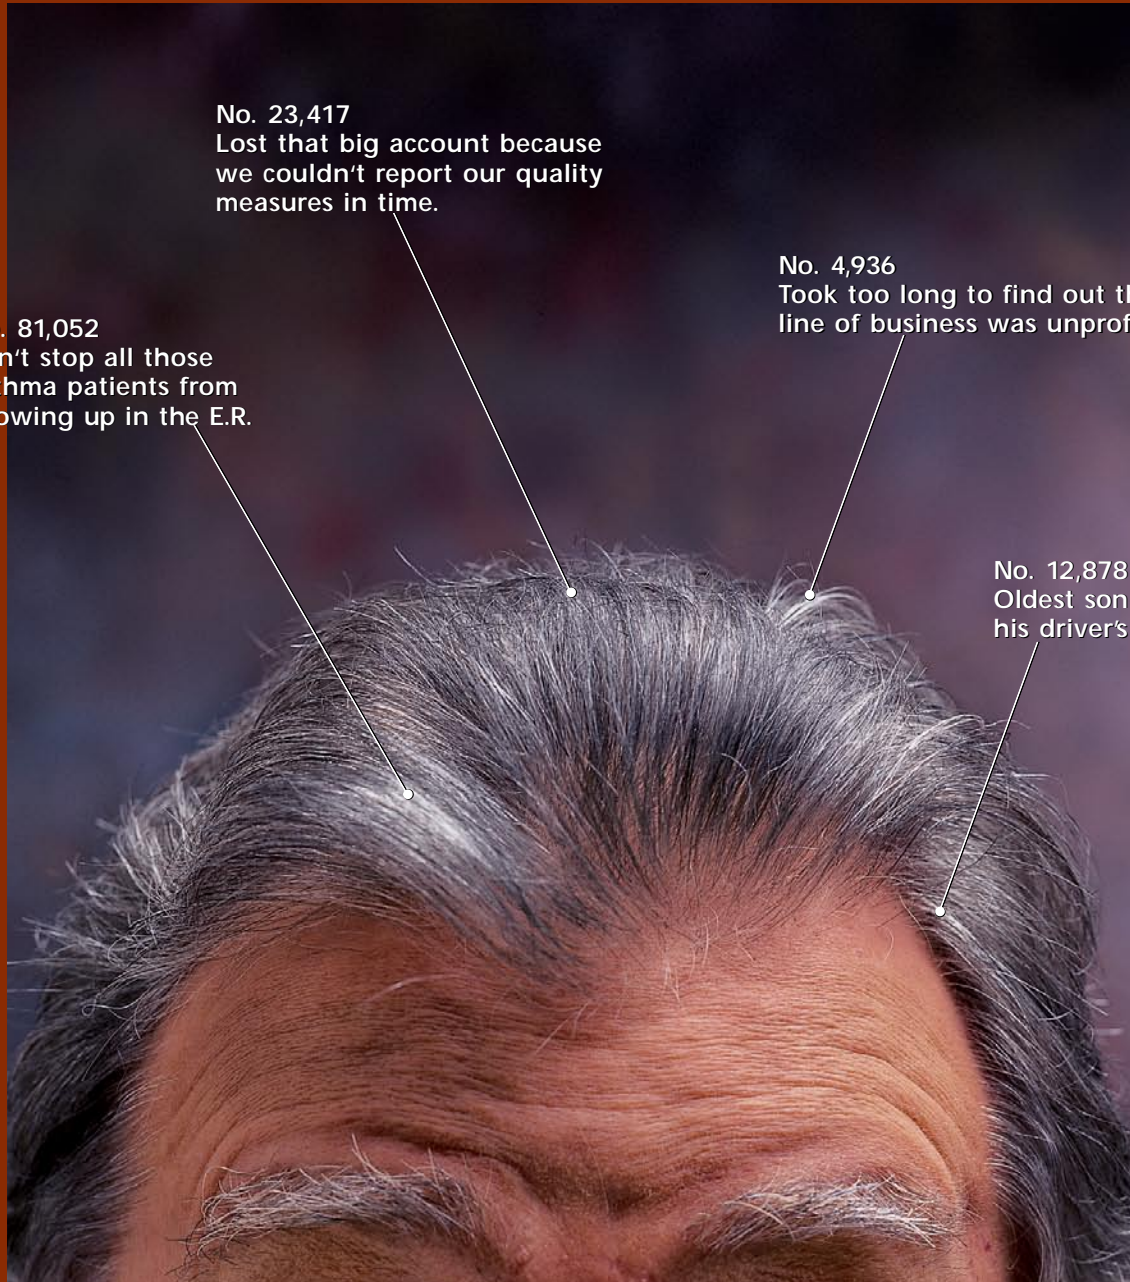

Wednesday –
Why can't we get the data we need to improve health plan performance?

With our payor solutions, you'll be able to free your mind of those troubling worries and concentrate on other issues. [Like lunch.]

Since GMIS, AMISYS and HPR joined the McKessonHBOC family, our health plan and medical manage-solutions have become the most comprehensive in the industry. From applications that can automate your total operation to software that can monitor the quality of care and compliance with performance measures. And, of course, we offer consulting services to optimize your system's effectiveness. Just think, with solutions like this, you might be able to spend your lunch hour actually having lunch for a change. For more information on how our software and services can work for you, give us a call at 1-800-933-4647.

McKessonHBOC

No. 23,417
Lost that big account because we couldn't report our quality measures in time.

No. 81,052
Can't stop all those asthma patients from showing up in the E.R.

No. 4,936
Took too long to find out that line of business was unprofitable.

No. 12,878
Oldest son got his driver's license.

Our payor solutions can help you with the tough problems that come with managing health care.
[Managing your teenagers is another matter entirely.]

From software that can automate health plan operations to case management and provider profiling applications, McKessonHBOC can help you settle those age-old dilemmas of healthcare management. Now that GMIS, AMISYS and HPR are part of our family, we have the most complete range of software solutions today.

Of course, we also offer our top-notch consulting services. So you'll always be in control in any situation. Even if being a parent has you feeling otherwise. For more information about how our software and services can work for you, give us a call at 1-800-933-4647.

McKessonHBOC